

Requirements for Program Completion

Subprogram in English Language Education, Master's Program in Humanities

Degree Programs in Humanities and Social Sciences

Graduate School of Business Sciences, Humanities and Social Sciences

Subject Area	Subject Group or Subject Name, etc.	Conditions	Number of Credits
General Foundation Subjects	"Joint Seminar for Master's Thesis"	Required Courses	1
	"Introduction to Research Methods"	Electively Required Courses	1
	"Academic Writing and Research Ethics"
	Degree Programs' Common Courses (Excluding the three subjects listed above) Graduate General Education Courses Inter-disciplinary Foundation Courses	Electively Required Courses	2
Major Subjects	"Seminar on Thesis Research I, II"	Required Courses	2
	Others	Electively Required Courses	24
Required Credits for Completion			30

(Completion Requirements)

Students must be enrolled in the program for at least two years, acquire at least 30 credits by taking the required courses as specified below, receive necessary research supervision, and pass the master's thesis and the final examinations. However, for those who have made outstanding achievements, enrollment for at least one year is sufficient.

- (1) 2 credits from Degree Programs' Common Courses – "Joint Seminar for Master's Thesis" (Required Courses) and "Introduction to Research Methods" or "Academic Writing and Research Ethics" (Electively Required Courses)
- (2) 2 credits from Degree Programs' Common Courses (Excluding the three subjects listed above), Graduate General Education Courses or Inter-disciplinary Foundation Courses
- (3) 2 credits from Major Subjects including "Seminar on Thesis Research I, II"
- (4) 24 credits from Major Subjects of Subprogram in English Language Education or other subprograms

(Note1) If deemed instrumental for educational purposes, credits earned by taking courses in other degree programs, etc. may be accepted as required credits for completion, within the range determined by Master's Program in Humanities, up to a maximum of 10 credits.

(Note2) Those who wish to obtain teaching staff license (specialization) must obtain 24 credits of courses (English) related to the teaching staff license from Subprogram in English Language Education or other subprograms.

(Note3) Credits of "Field Experiences: English Language Education I A~ II B" will not be included in 30 credits.